Welcome new and returning students and faculty! In this first issue of the Specker Library Newsletter for this year, we highlight the book display put up to honor Martin Luther King. In addition, we discuss Dr. Chen’s participation at the American Library Association’s Midwinter Meeting in Atlanta, GA.

HONORING MARTIN LUTHER KING

Last week, in honor of Martin Luther King, Specker Library put up a display of books from our collection that focus on his life and works. The display also featured famous quotes and speeches that Martin Luther King gave. Some of Dr. King’s works will be on display again next month for Black History Month.

DR. CHEN AT THE ALA MIDWINTER MEETING

Last weekend Dr. Chen attended the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Atlanta, GA. Representing Calumet College and the Chinese American Librarians Association (CALA), Dr. Chen participated in the 17th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Sunrise Observance, and was one of the several people who read an excerpt from a letter Dr. King wrote while he was in jail in Birmingham.

DID YOU KNOW?

Specker Library is able to borrow items that we do not have in our collection for students and faculty from other libraries through a process called “interlibrary loan.” Check out our new video tutorial to learn how to submit a request:
