Student Leadership Award

Application for the 2008-2009 Student Participation Grant

Student Name _____ Semester Fall 2008

Student Club/Organization _____ Office _____

Purpose

The Student Leadership Award is designed to reward those students who commit to take on leadership positions that require a significant amount of time, energy, enthusiasm, effort, and thought. Students serving as president or vice president of a registered student club/organization or hold office in Student Government are eligible to receive this scholarship by completing the criteria below.

Award Criteria

1. Student must maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. Current G.P.A.: _____

2. Student must complete the requirements as outlined on this award criteria form for the full award ($1,000) per semester or complete half of each requirement (with the exception of the leadership meeting) for the half award ($500). Failing to complete the requirements for the half award will result in forfeiture of the award.

Award criteria forms will be assessed at the 60% point in the semester. Students participating in half or more midpoint activities will receive the full award, participating in less than half of the activities (but attending every Student Leadership meeting) will receive the half award, and zero activities forfeit the award. Failure to complete the remaining commitments beyond the midway point will forfeit future eligibility for this award.
