Responsibilities
Attending Class	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not attend. We believe that intellectual growth and success in higher education occur through interaction in the classroom and laboratories. However, we do not want to penalize students for participating in college-sponsored events. When you miss class because of a college event, you must give notice of your absence in advance, and you are responsible for all missed work. Being absent doesn't excuse you from doing class work; you have more responsibilities to keep up and meet the objectives of this course. No more than Four (4) absences allowed; requests for an exception MUST be in writing within one week of returning to any class. Given at Instructor's discretion.
Turning In Your Work	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not turn in all your work on the day it is due. All homework/assignments are to be submitted when due; late work will be downgraded. After one week late work will NOT be accepted. Medical or other excuses at Instructor's discretion.
Using Electronic Devices	All electronic devices shall be turned off PRIOR to entering the classroom, whether or not class has started. If you have an electronic textbook permission to use your device may be granted. If you text or access the Internet for other purposes, you may be asked to leave, in which case you will be marked absent. Any medical or emergency exceptions by Instructor approval only.
Participating in Class	You must be on time, stay for the whole class and speak up in a way that shows you have done the assigned reading. If you are not prepared for class discussion, you may be asked to leave, in which case you will be marked absent. You must prepare for every chapter we cover fifteen (15) important

	factual statements: give the statement, the page number, and the location on the page (top, middle, or bottom).
Doing Your Own Work & Not Allowing Cheating/Dishonesty	All students enrolled in a criminal justice course must adhere to the CRIJ "Honor Code" which states that every student MUST make the Instructor aware of actual or suspected cheating by any student. This means that not only the suspected student but any other student that also observed the incident. Any student observing cheating and failing to report it shall also be deemed guilty of cheating. Preparing to enter the field of criminal justice requires a code of honesty. If you feel that you cannot turn someone in who is dishonest or cheating, please find another major field of study!! If you turn in work that is not your own, you are subject to judicial review, and these procedures can be found in the College Catalog and the Student Planner. The maximum penalty for any form of academic dishonesty is dismissal from the College. Using standard citation guidelines, such as MLA or APA format, to document sources avoids plagiarism. The Library has reference copies of each of these manuals, and there are brief checklists in your Student Handbook and Planner. PLEASE NOTE: All papers may be electronically checked for plagiarism.
Withdrawing from Class	After the last day established for class changes has passed (see the College calendar), you may withdraw from a course by following the policy outlined in the CCSJ Course Catalog.
CCSJ Student Honor Code	This course asks students to reaffirm the CCSJ Student Honor Code: I, as a student member of the Calumet College academic community, in accordance with the college's mission and in a spirit of mutual respect, pledge to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuously embrace honesty and curiosity in the pursuit of my educational goals; • Avoid all behaviors that could impede or distract from the academic progress of myself or other members of my community; • Do my own work with integrity at all times, in accordance with syllabi, and without giving or receiving inappropriate aid; • Do my utmost to act with commitment, inside and outside of class, to the goals and mission of Calumet College of St. Joseph.
