Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire" William Yeats, Irish Poet

I am passionate about this quote as I reflect back on my days in high school and colleges of higher learning. I have been privileged to have dedicated teachers who believed in me and encouraged critical thinking for me and other students who have deep desire to assist us in our quest to know beyond what the textbooks said and how it all fit into real world. The men and women educators truly lit the fire of hunger to learn from all persons, cultures, circumstances and experiences. As effective mentors they have led me to a career in sharing knowledge, where my hope is that I can do the same for others like you so that I can lit the fire in you to become change agents and rename our world where everyone can be treated justly, reach their potential and able to live a quality life.

IF YOU HAVE A DISABILITY AND ARE UNABLE TO EVACUATE:

7. Fight – learn to “fight for your life” by utilizing everything you can use as a weapon.
8. Forget about getting shot – fight! You want to buy time to distract the shooter to allow time for emergency responders to arrive.
9. Aim high – attack the shooter in the upper half of the body: the face, hands, shoulder, neck.
10. Fight as a group – the more people come together, the better the chance to take down the shooter.
11. Whatever you do, do something – “react immediately” is the better option to reduce traumatic incidents.
