Calumet College of St. Joseph is a Catholic institution of higher learning dedicated to the academic, spiritual and ethical development of undergraduate and graduate students. Informed by the values of its founding religious community, the Missionaries of the Precious Blood (C.P.P.S.), the College promotes the inherent dignity of all people, social justice, an ethic of service, student empowerment, opportunity, and lifelong learning.

We are committed to the Five Pillars of a CCSJ Education: The CCSJ graduate will be Open to Growth, Intellectually Competent, Religious, Loving, and Committed to Doing Justice. This class, as outlined below, will help you to achieve those goals.

Course Inquiry Question: What factors shape our sense of identity?

“Most people are other people. Their thoughts are someone else's opinions, their lives a mimicry, their passions a quotation.”

— Oscar Wilde

“When I discover who I am, I'll be free.”

— Ralph Ellison, Invisible Man

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.”

— Mahatma Gandhi

COURSE SYLLABUS, FALL 2020

Course: EMCO 103 C, English Composition
--

Instructor Name: Kenneth Stavitzke
Office Number: Room 531 (Adjunct Office)
Phone Number: (219) 775-9548 (call or text anytime)
Email: kstavitzke@ccsj.edu
Hours Available: Tues: 7:30am-8:30am and 12pm-1pm; Thurs: 12pm-1pm.
Also available by appointment.

Instructor Background: I am a first-generation college student with 25 years of hospital experience as a psychiatric registered nurse (R.N.). Since my favorite hobbies are reading and writing, I decided to pursue graduate studies in English literature and composition, and I now enjoy teaching and inspiring students. I was born and raised in Northwest Indiana, and I continue to live and work here. I enjoy visiting Chicago a lot, and, currently, I am learning French to prepare for a Ph.D. program in English.

Course Information:

Course Time: Tuesday/Thursday, 10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m.
Classroom: 182
Prerequisites: None
Required Books & Materials: Austin, Michael, editor. Reading the World: Ideas that Matter. W.W. Norton & Company, 2015.
Other readings will be provided

Learning Outcomes / Competencies:

This course meets the following objectives:

Students in this course will...

- write a variety of clear, grammatically correct sentences.
- actively read and annotate a variety of texts across the curriculum.
- understand and gain greater control over all the phases of the writing process: prewriting, writing, revising, and editing.
- write organized and well-developed familiar, expository, and persuasive essays.
- understand the elements of rhetorical situations in both reading and writing.

The course also meets the following General Education Program objectives:

Students will...

- read analytically, synthetically, and critically in a variety of genres.
- write in a variety of forms using valid logic, persuasive rhetoric, and correct grammar, usage, and punctuation.
- orally deliver a presentation with a clear central idea that is logically developed, supported by convincing evidence and valid reasoning, and expressed using language and delivery choices thoughtfully adapted to the audience.
- appreciate, create, and critique the persuasive power of art and media.
- apply ethical standards to social issues and analyze their own core beliefs and the origin of these beliefs.

This course meets Calumet College of St. Joseph's Signature Assignment requirement to demonstrate fundamental competency in written and/or oral communications.

Course Description:

In this course students learn the concepts and skills needed to write an effective, college-level expository essay. Through both traditional and workshop methods, students gain greater control over the writing process, essay organization, paragraph construction, and sentence grammar. Before successfully completing the course, students must demonstrate basic competency in writing. (This course is a CCSJ General Education requirement.)

Learning Strategies:

Direct instruction with PowerPoint and other visual aids will be used to provide and reinforce required course content. Students are expected to prepare handwritten notes during periods of direct instruction, including during class discussions. Students' notes should include the day/date of the class session. They should also include a list of unfamiliar vocabulary encountered during direct instruction and class discussions. These notes should be assembled into a chronological archive and stored in a notebook, a folder, or on a digital platform. Student notes may be reviewed and/or collected periodically gauge student participation.

Reading is essential to mastering the learning objectives of this course. Students should be prepared to read, re-read, annotate, summarize, discuss, and analyze texts selected from a wide variety of genres, which may include textbooks, essays, scholarly articles, reportage, editorials, and literary texts. Reading regularly will also help expand students' vocabulary and strengthen their ability to "decode" the meaning, structure, and rhetorical situation of different kinds of texts.

Writing is essential to mastering the learning objectives of this course. Students should be prepared to pre-write (list, brainstorm, freewrite), write (draft), re-write (revise), edit, and publish (print/post) a variety of writing assignments. Students will prepare a mixture of explanatory summaries, elementary academic essays, exploratory and expressive writing assignments (e.g., online discussion forum posts, freewriting, journals, reader response). Students will assemble a portfolio of writing to demonstrate attainment of basic competency in writing for the General Education Program.

Oral Communication is essential to mastering the learning objectives of this course. Students should be prepared to formulate their ideas orally during full-class or small-group discussions. Students may also be asked to deliver oral presentations related to course reading and writing assignments.

Individualized Instruction will be provided at various times during the course, particularly to assist students in the writing process. These interactions (e.g., informal paper conferences) provide an opportunity for students to ask questions, respond to instructor feedback, and gain greater control over their personal writing process.

Online Instruction will be incorporated throughout the course. This will include regular use of Blackboard and may include assigned online grammar, vocabulary, reading, and writing exercises and assessments.

Assessments:

The Proficiency Portfolio:

Because English 103 is a competency-based course, the final portfolio demonstrates your proficiency in reading and writing and shows your readiness for English 204 and for college-level writing in general. In order to submit a final portfolio, students need to be passing the course at the time portfolios are collected. All work in the final portfolio (other than the cover letter) must have been read by the instructor prior to portfolio submission. During finals week, portfolios will be read by committees of CCSJ writing faculty, who will use the CCSJ Rubric for Written Communications to evaluate the portfolios. Students whose portfolios do not pass the portfolio evaluation will receive an F for the course regardless of the grade they were earning before they submitted the portfolio because they have failed to meet a minimal competency in college-level composition.

The following are required materials for the portfolio:

- An introductory cover letter (1-1.5 pages) which describes the contents of the portfolio and uses the contents as evidence in a discussion of the students' understanding of their writing (including but not limited to the final products, their process, and their strengths and weaknesses as readers and writers)
- The Persuasive Essay or the Expository Essay (3-5 pages) plus one rough draft, including comments from the instructor
- At least one objective summary (1 page)
- An in-class competency essay (2-3 pages) administered toward the end of the semester based on a writing prompt common to all English 103 sections

Students also have the option of including other written work, perhaps from another class at CCSJ. This is completely optional.

Students will be preparing all semester for the final portfolio and will have the option of revising all of their work except for the in-class essay and the cover letter. If a student's portfolio fails to meet minimal competencies, that student will receive a final grade of F for the course and will need to repeat it. If a student's portfolio is deemed exemplary, that student may become eligible for the St. Gaspar's Honors Learning Community.

Major Assignments:

Student performance in this course will be evaluated using the grading system described herein. Students can track their current grade by contacting me directly

Points

anytime. Students' final grades will be determined based on their performance in seven different areas: 1. Participation Assignments: Students will complete a variety of short homework and in-class assignments. Some will assess if students have completed the assigned readings, understood vocabulary, and can articulate key concepts. Others will provide opportunities for students to express their thoughts about class readings or ideas presented in class to an audience that includes the instructor and/or their peers. Still others may be self-reflective assignments to help students formulate their thoughts. 2. Summaries: Students will write two, 250-word summaries of course texts: 25 pts each. 3. Personal Essay: Students will write a 750-1,000 word essays that responds to an assigned prompt. This essay will give students the opportunity to formulate an initial response to the course inquiry question. 4. Expository Essay: In this essay of no fewer than 1,000 words, students will explain how the assigned texts appear to respond to our course inquiry question. The paper should include a clear thesis (i.e., the answer the assigned texts give to the inquiry question). This thesis should be supported by your explanation of carefully selected supporting passages from the source texts. 5. Persuasive Essay: In this essay of no fewer than 1,250-words, students will respond to commonly held beliefs related to our inquiry question. Using a combination of rhetorical appeals (ethos, logos, pathos) convince your readers that these widely held beliefs are more complicated than they may appear. 6. Oral Presentation of Persuasive Essay Using one or more digital (visual) aid, students will have approximately 8 minutes to orally persuade the instructor and class members to a call for action, directly related to their persuasive essay. 7. Attendance: Regular attendance is required to succeed in this course. Students are expected to arrive on time, attend the entire class, and participate during class and through regular online activity. Each absence will reduce students' attendance grade by 10%. Students who miss more than six hours of class will receive a zero (0) for the attendance portion of their final grade. (Be sure to review the complete English Program attendance policy below under "Responsibilities"). NOTE: University policy permits absences for athletic competition (i.e., not practice, meetings, etc.) provided that 48 hours advance notice is provided in writing (e.g., by email) to the instructor. Absences for any other reasons will not be excused.	50 50 100 100 100 50 50 500

Responsibilities

Safety Measures:

The safety of our College Family in this unprecedented time is our primary concern. Following guidelines presented by the Centers of Disease Control (CDC), the Indiana Health Department, and best practices among other institutions of higher education, we are requiring the following:

- Face coverings over the mouth and nose in all indoor public spaces, including classrooms, the library, the Tutoring Center, and faculty offices.
- Because face coverings are in use, no eating or drinking in the classroom. Plan to meet your needs between classes using appropriate social distancing.
- Daily self-monitoring. If you have a temperature of 100.4 or higher, or any symptoms of COVID-19 – fever or chills, a cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, loss of taste or smell, sore throat, or nausea or vomiting – stay home and consult the class policy for staying on track.
- Disinfecting your personal space using the materials provided when you enter the classroom.
- Maintaining physical distancing of at least six feet within classrooms and other common spaces.

Please note: To accommodate students who may not be able to attend class in person, this class may be taped and posted to the course Blackboard site. Tapes will not be used for any other purpose outside of class.

What to Do in Case of Illness:

If you are exposed to COVID 19, become ill, or are otherwise unable to attend classes as required, notify the College by sending an email to illness@ccsj.edu. The message that you are unable to attend class will be relayed to your faculty. The College will contact you with expectations regarding next steps and follow-up.

Attending Class:

You cannot succeed in this class if you do not attend. We believe that intellectual growth and success in higher education occur through interaction in the classroom and laboratories. Being absent doesn't excuse you from doing class work; you have more responsibilities to keep up and meet the objectives of this course.

Students who miss more than SIX (6) hours of class will receive a zero (0) for the attendance portion of their final grade.

In accordance with the English Program attendance policy, any student missing more than NINE (9) hours of class will receive an F (a failing grade) for the course.

Turning in Your Work :

You cannot succeed in this class if you do not turn in all your work on the day it is due.

To pass the course, you must complete and turn in all required assignments. Work is to be turned in at the beginning of class on the due date listed on the course syllabus or stated by the instructor in-class or online. All written work must be typed and stapled (unless otherwise instructed).

Late Work: You will not receive credit for any late assignment unless you have made arrangements with the instructor prior to the next scheduled class session. I reserved the right to deduct a 25% penalty per day late for any assignments. Any work submitted more than four days late will receive a zero. Contact me at mcassello@ccsj.edu to determine how/where you should submit any late work. In other words, do not show up to class a week after an assignment is due, hand in your work, and expect to receive credit for it.

Missed In-class Work: Except under dire circumstances (e.g., serious bodily injury requiring hospitalization or prolonged illness) in-class activities such as worksheets, journals, quizzes, review of notes/annotations, presentations, performances, group work, etc. cannot be made up if you are absent on the day the assignment is due.

Meeting Standards for Classroom Behavior:

- Use all the class time. Come to class on time and stay in class until the end. Coming late, leaving early, and getting up during class disrupts the class and disrespects others.
- Come prepared. Bring your texts, be prepared to take notes, and be able to demonstrate that you have completed the assignments for the day through your participation in class.
- Respect others. Listen when your classmates and the instructor are speaking. Think about their contributions. Respond appropriately.
- Use electronic devices only for class purposes. Engage with your classmates and the instructor without technological distractions.
- Eat before or after class. Consume meals, snacks, and other food items outside of the classroom. Eating during class detracts from the learning environment. Drinks, cough drops, hard candy, etc. are permitted, so long as they do not become a distraction.
- No earbuds and no headphones in use during our meetings in the traditional classroom setting.

CCSJ Student Honor Code:

This course asks students to reaffirm the CCSJ Student Honor Code:

I, as a student member of the Calumet College academic community, in accordance with the college's mission and in a spirit of mutual respect, pledge to:

- Continuously embrace honesty and curiosity in the pursuit of my educational goals;
- Avoid all behaviors that could impede or distract from the academic progress of myself or other members of my community;
- Do my own work with integrity at all times, in accordance with syllabi, and without giving or receiving inappropriate aid;
- Do my utmost to act with commitment, inside and outside of class, to the goals and mission of Calumet College of St. Joseph.

Doing Your Own Work:

If you turn in work that is not your own, you will be subject to judicial review by the Faculty-Student Grievance Committee. These procedures can be found in the Student Planner. The maximum penalty for any form of academic dishonesty is dismissal from the College.

PLEASE NOTE: All papers may be electronically checked for plagiarism.

Sharing Your Class Experience:

Your voice matters! At the end of the term, you will have the opportunity to evaluate your classroom experience. These confidential surveys are essential to our ongoing efforts to ensure that you have a great experience that leaves you well prepared for your future. Take the time to complete your course evaluations – we value your feedback!

Withdrawing from Class:

After the last day established for class changes has passed (see the College calendar in the CCSJ Course Catalog), you may withdraw from a course by following the policy outlined in the Course Catalog.

Communicating with your Professor:

Blackboard: Blackboard will be used to distribute readings, handouts, and announcements. Your grades will also be recorded regularly in Blackboard. It is essential that you log into Blackboard regularly to ensure that you stay informed about the course. If the campus is closed or class cancelled due to bad weather, alternative assignments will be distributed via Blackboard and must be completed on time.

Office Hours: Students are encouraged to use office hours for assistance and clarification. Office hours are an excellent forum to discuss individual questions which are not appropriate during class (a question about your particular assignment, a question about the English Program, your attendance, etc.). Appointments are not necessary, but they help me to prepare for your visit and ensure that I will not be out of the office. My office hours are specified on the first page of the syllabus.

Email: I will use CCSJ's email to send urgent announcements about class or assignments. You should use CCSJ's email to communicate about absences and to ask small but important questions (e.g. clarification about an assignment). Don't use email to request information or materials readily available elsewhere (e.g. due dates ← listed on the syllabus, handouts ← available on Blackboard). I respond to ALL emails within 24 hours.

Phone Calls: Call or text me anytime @ 219-775-9548. I will respond as soon as possible and definitely within 24 hours.

In all instances (Blackboard, office hours, email, phone), remember that communication with college instructors should always maintain standards of professionalism and formality.

Resources

CCSJ Book Rental Program:

The CCSJ Book Program ensures that everyone has the right course materials on the first day of class to be successful. You pay a book rental fee each semester, and in return, receive all the materials for all your classes prior to the beginning of classes. At the end of the semester, simply return the books. For traditional students, the Book Rental Program is conveniently located in the library, where students can pick up and return their books. For students in accelerated programs and graduate programs, books will be delivered to their homes and they can return them by mail. For more information, see <http://www.ccsj.edu/bookstore>. All books must be returned at the end of the semester or you will incur additional fees, which will be charged to your student account.

- Student Success Center: The Student Success Center provides faculty tutors at all levels to help you master specific subjects and develop effective learning skills. It is open to all students at no charge. You can contact the Student Success Center at 219 473-4287 or stop by the Library.
- Disability Services: Disability Services strives to meet the needs of all students by providing academic services in accordance with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guidelines. If you believe that you need a “reasonable accommodation” because of a disability, contact the Disability Services Coordinator at 219-473-4349.
- Student Assistance Program: Through a partnership with Crown Counseling, Calumet College of St. Joseph provides a free Student Assistance Program (SAP) to current students. The SAP is a confidential counseling service provided to students for personal and school concerns which may be interfering with academic performance and/or quality of life. The SAP counselor is available on campus once a week and off-site at the Crown Counseling offices in Crown Point or Hammond. For more information, contact Kerry Knowles SAP Counselor, at 219-663-6353 (office), 219-413-3702 (cell), or kerryk@crowncounseling.org.
- CCSJ Alerts: Calumet College of St. Joseph’s emergency communications system will tell you about emergencies, weather-related closings, or other incidents via text, email, or voice messages. Please sign up for this important service annually on the College’s website at: <http://www.ccsj.edu/alerts/index.html>.
